

STUDENT EXPRESSION, RIGHTS & RESPONSIBILITIES TIPS: IF YOU ARE CONFRONTED WITH OFFENSIVE SPEECH OR MATERIALS:

- Maintain a safe distance and do not respond physically.
- Keep in mind that even though you find it offensive, it is very likely protected free speech under the First Amendment. Remember we are a public university.
- Consider organizing an appropriate, nonviolent response.
- Seek assistance from a University official or the police if you feel you are being singled out or targeted or if you think that the conduct or speech violates University policy.
- Please remember you are responsible for your personal actions.

For more information or help planning an event on campus visit the ASUN Center for Student Engagement on the 3rd Floor of The Joe.
studentengagement@unr.edu 775-784-6589

